

5-State Women In Ag Conference

Saturday, January 29, 2011

8:30am - 4:30pm

Victory Memorial United Methodist Church Enrichment Center

6th & N. Roosevelt Guymon, OK

Key Note Speaker: Matt Rush, a 5th generation farmer and cattle rancher, will speak on leadership skills as well as the importance of American agriculture. In Matt's own words, "There never has been, nor will be, a story that I love to tell more than that of American Agriculture. I'm proud to tell people that I'm doing the same thing that my grandfather's grandfather did and we're better now than we've EVER been!" Find out more about Matt at www.newmexicomatt.com

Vocal Performances by Randi Yates, Texas County 4-H member

Hosted by:

- Texas County OSU Extension
- Beaver County OSU Extension
- Cimarron County OSU Extension
- Ochiltree County Extension AgriLife
- Seward County KSU Extension
- Bank of the Panhandle
- Main Street Guymon
- TX Co. Conservation District

Hourly sessions will cover the following topics:

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|--|--|
| * Estate Planning | * Alternative Enterprise-
Goat Ranching | * "Making Sense of USDA
Programs" |
| * Business Plans for the Farm | * Social Media in
Agriculture | * Mini-Mall, Booths and
Door Prizes |
| * Agritourism | | |

5-State Women in Ag Conference

REGISTRATION FEE $25.00 (includes lunch catered by Chicken House)

(make check payable to Texas County OSU Extension Service)

January 29, 2011 • 8:30am- 4:30pm

Victory Memorial United Methodist Enrichment Center, 6th & N. Roosevelt, Guymon, Ok 73942

Please mail registration by January 15, 2011 to:

Texas County OSU Extension Service

POB 320, Guymon, Ok 73942 • 580-338-7300

Name _____ Phone _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

E-mail _____